Lake Placid Draws Record Crowd of Honeymoon Couples

Majority of Camps Opened for the Fourth; Noted Educators Will Pass Season in the Adirondacks

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
LAKE PLACID, N. Y., July 2.—Honeymoon couples have taken possession of Lake Placid in numbers exceeding the records of all previous seasons and the famous "Eden of the Adirondacks" has temporarily become "The Heart of the Honeymoon Hills." About twenty newlyweds are at Whiteface Inn and an equal number have their headquarters at the Stevens House. There are many at the Lake Placid Club, and each of the other hotels, the Grand View, Northwoods, Inn, Lakeside Inn, the Pines and the Belmont, has its quota. When Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Herbert, of New York, who have been married about a year, arrived at the Stevens House for a sojourn of ten days, they were greeted by their friends as honeymooners and were overcome with congratulations.

Campers have arrived during the week in large numbers, and most of the camps will be open for the Fourth. Dr. James R. Angell, the new president of Yale, expected soon at Glenmore, near Owl's Head Inn, Keene Center. He will be accompanied by his wife and son, and they have been preceded by Miss Molly Angell, his daughter, who is awaiting them at Hurricane Lodge.

Mrs. E. J. De Copet, widow of the patron of the famous Flonzaley Quartet, has arrived and opened her cottage, The Sentinels, at the Lake Placid Club. She is accompanied by her daughter, Miss De Copet.

Mrs. George H. Notman, prominent Brooklyn suffrage leader, has arrived at the Notman summer place in Keene Valley.

Dr. James R. Ray, former president of Syracuse University, has arrived with Mrs. Day and Miss Day at Lake Placid Club, where they will pass the season.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Bement and Miss Bement, of Philadelphia, have opened Outlook cottage at Lake Placid Club for the season.

Prof. Edward H. Griffith, dean of Johns Hopkins University, arrived Tuesday with his family at Camp Midwood, on Lake Placid, for the season. Among others who opened their camps on Lake Placid were Mrs. Cesar Cone, founder of the model village of the cotton mills of Greensboro, S. C.; M. L. Richert of New York, who has leased Camp Birchwood, and H. P. Eels and party, Cleveland, who have opened Camp Gull Rock.

William Hoffman and family, of East Orange, arrived yesterday at Camp Inwood, Whiteface Inn, which has been occupied for several seasons by the late Chief Justice and Mrs. White.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Good, of Newark, and Miss Ruth Good arrived this week and opened Camp Ne-an-doe at Whiteface Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Deyer and the Misses Deyer, of New York, are among the arrivals of the week at Whiteface Inn.

"Honest John" Kelly and Mrs. Kelly, of New York, who have been sojourning at Whiteface Inn, went down with a party of friends to witness the Dempsey-Carpentier fight, but will return for the season at the Inn.

Dr. Henry L. Marcy Jr., of Brooklyn, students at the Hopkins School, were dinner guests this week at the Stevens House of J. D. Brown, of Athens, Ohio, and the latter's nephew, James B. Davis, of Cincinnati.

F. C. Squires, Ben King and J. Hoffman, of Rahway, N. J., who annually pass the season at the Stevens House, have leased the Brewster cottage for this summer.

Mrs. Joseph Slevin Jr., of New York, has returned for her annual sojourn at the Stevens House. She is accompanied by her niece, Miss Grace Fitzpatrick, of New York.

Sport Program for Holiday Visitors At White Sulphur

Mrs. Oliver Harriman Takes Cottage at Virginia Resort; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Donohue Recent Arrivals

Special Correspondence of The Tribune
WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, July 2.—The arrival of a number of visitors to spend the week end, remaining over the Fourth, has helped to swell the summer crowds here, and a program of sporting events is scheduled for to-morrow which promises to be well attended. The summer season is now getting into its stride. Mrs. Oliver Harriman is now making her first visit here, having taken a cottage for the summer, and Mrs. Charles Hopper, John Harriman and J. Borden Harriman are with her. The party has been appearing on the golf links almost every day.

Mrs. David Bacon, who came on June 1, is remaining for an extended visit. Her son-in-law, John Aspegren, who was here at the time, has since returned to New York, and is now with Mrs. Aspegren at Hauteville Villa at Newport.

Among the many honeymooners here in the last fortnight were Mr. and Mrs. J. Philip Benkart, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Russell Jones, all of New York. Mr. and Mrs. Jones entertained very informally at a dinner for six guests at Kate's Mountain Club recently, and Mr. Jones has taken part in several matches on the eighteen-hole course.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed, the playwright and the film star, returned to New York this week. Mrs. Reed was Miss Naomi Childers before her marriage a fortnight ago.

Among the latest additions to the cottagers are Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Donohue, who are here from New York with their daughters, Misses Jule and Barbara Donohue, and Master W. L. Burton. They will occupy Casino Cottage, under the summer home of Mrs. W. McKenna, also a visitor at White Sulphur Springs the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Cadwalader and Charles M. B. Cadwalader, have returned to Philadelphia, after making a short return visit here. They are expecting to come back this summer for a much longer stay.

The Chicago colony, which was unusually large during the Easter season, is receiving many recruits these days. Harold A. Howard, who was one of the representatives of the Old Elm Club in the amateur tournament, has returned with Mrs. Howard to occupy a cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Eliphail W. Cramer, also of Chicago, have returned.

Miss Natalie Y. Smith, one of the enthusiastic horsewomen of the colony during the April season, has come back. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Smith, are with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Worrall G. Clarkson Jr. are here from St. Paul, on their honeymoon. They motored to Elmhurst for a Virginia dinner during the week.

Miss Virginia R. Harrison, daughter of Francis Burton Harrison, onetime Governor General of the Philippines, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Charles H. White, of Baltimore.

Mrs. Lawrence Lewis, the daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Lewis, is now in St. Augustine, but plans to return in August to Colonnade Cottage, which is taken for the summer by her mother, Mrs. J. K. Wise. Mrs. Wise returned this week from a short visit to New York with her sister, Mrs. Graham Kenan, who sailed to pass the summer on the Continent.

Albert B. Baker, of New York, took part in a three days' tennis match, playing with Bayless W. Haynes and winning the cup for the doubles against H. P. Withington, of Boston, and W. Dewey Cooke, of Savannah.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gay, accompanied by Miss Georgetown Taylor, are late additions to the New York colony, and motored out to Monroe Draft and Organ Cave the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hendrix, of Chicago, motored to Elmhurst for dinner recently. Miss Olive Kahlo has returned to White Sulphur Springs after a fortnight's visit with friends in New York.

Mrs. Horace Marr, of New York, and Roanoke, is stopping at Mountain Home with her small daughter, Dana Marr, and is a frequent visitor at the Greenbrier. Miss Marjorie Cowan, of Louisville, Mrs. Quintard Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Jones, were in a horseback excursion, riding over High Top Mountain recently.
